

Pembroke College Cambridge

Chapel Services and Music

Easter Term 2022

The Chapel and Choirs of Pembroke College

Pembroke College, founded in 1347 by Marie de St Pol, Countess of Pembroke, is the third oldest of the Cambridge colleges. The Chapel, built after the Civil War by Christopher Wren, was a breath of fresh air in the tired late Gothic of C17th England. The striking marble floor, the intricate plaster roof, and the glowing ancient woodwork make it a jewel-like and truly lovely space. This physical and inherited beauty is brought to life regularly by sacred music and profound traditional and modern words and prayers.

The Chapel Choir sings for the majority of the services in Chapel, directed by Anna Lapwood. Alongside undergraduate and graduate members of Pembroke can be found singers from other colleges, other universities, and working professionals from Cambridge. The Choir's main responsibility is contributing to worship in the College's chapel; as well as Sunday Eucharist and Evensong, there are regular midweek services, some of which give local schoolchildren the opportunity to experience high quality music-making in the Anglican choral tradition. There are also seasonal concerts performing larger-scale works with orchestra, recent highlights of which include Haydn's Nelson Mass and Bach's Magnificat. The Chapel Choir participates in regular education work, both in the UK and further afield, most recently travelling to Thailand for two weeks of concerts and workshops. An ongoing collaboration with the Muze Trust led the choir to undertake a tour to Zambia in 2017, and they will be returning there soon. Closer to home, the Choir hosts children from Pembroke House in Walworth, London, for a day of music workshops every year. Unusually amongst Oxbridge choirs, Pembroke Choir also has a number of exciting popular collaborations. They sang alongside Eric Idle, have appeared on tour with Gareth Malone and The Swingles, and have recorded twice at Abbey Road Studios. These collaborations provide a refreshing contrast to the choir's more typical program of concerts in Cambridge, London, and frequent tours both throughout the UK and around the world.

Weekly Service Schedule

Wednesdays

18:15 – Evensong sung by the Pembroke College Girls' Choir

21:30 – Compline sung by the Pembroke College Chapel Choir

Sundays

10:15 – Sung Eucharist

18:00 – Evensong sung by the Pembroke College Chapel Choir

The Girls' Choir, made up of Girls aged 11-18, sings Evensong every Wednesday at 18:15, and joins the Chapel Choir for special occasions. The Choir brings together girls between the ages of 11-18 from schools around Cambridge, helping them experience life as a chorister in a Cambridge College. The Choir provides a comprehensive musical education, with two rehearsals every week alongside Choral Evensong. The Choir focuses on musical excellence, performing at a professional level on a weekly basis alongside regular concerts and recordings. The Choir is grateful for the continued support of our Patron, Pembroke alumna and clarinettist Emma Johnson MBE.

Every Sunday morning, members of the Chapel Choir sing Eucharist, directed by Andreana Chan and Anna Lapwood.

Sunday Evensong is followed by drinks in the Old Library, and Compline is followed by drinks in the Chapel.

The Chapel has two organs. The main organ was provided by Charles Quarles in 1708, although there is a long-standing tradition that it was actually built by Bernard Smith. After many changes, it was rebuilt by N.P. Mander in 1980, using the old cases and some ranks of pipes to recreate an organ in historic style. When completed, this was for some time the only serious attempt made to recreate an early English church organ (as opposed to a chamber organ). It has generated a great deal of interest into this genre and has been the subject of considerable discussion. The Chamber Organ was built by Bernard Aubertin and arrived in the College in 2008. The Chapel also houses a two-manual harpsichord, a gift from David (Galbraith) Woods to the College in 2016. It was built in 1976 by Anthony Holbrook in the French Style.

This term, our music list continues to highlight the music of underrepresented composers, with at least one piece in each service written by a female or ethnic-minority composer. To hear more about our work in this area please talk to the Director of Music.
